- Program Type: Graduate minor related to major
- Requirements for this program are current for Fall 2022
- Length of program in credits (Masters): 8 to 9
- Length of program in credits (Doctorate): 12 to 13
- This program does not require summer semesters for timely completion.

Along with the program-specific requirements listed below, please read the General Information section of the catalog website for requirements that apply to all major fields.

The Development Practice minor offers three options for students interested in an international/sustainable development practice credential. The field experience option incorporates coursework and a summer field experience; the capstone option incorporates coursework and an experiential capstone component; and the coursework option concentrates on coursework that provides students with academic preparation in international/sustainable development practice.

Program Delivery

This program is available:

- via classroom (the majority of instruction is face-to-face)

Prerequisites for Admission

Special Application Requirements:

Students interested in the minor are strongly encouraged to confer with their major field advisor and director of graduate studies, and the Development Practice director of graduate studies regarding feasibility and requirements.

For an online application or for more information about graduate education admissions, see the General Information section of the catalog website.
