Leadership Minor

Organizational Leadership, Policy and Development

College of Education and Human Development

- Program Type: Undergraduate free-standing minor
- Requirements for this program are current for Spring 2012
- Required credits in this minor: 17

The 17-credit undergraduate leadership minor prepares students for real-life leadership experiences by combining social change and adaptive theories of leadership with authentic community and global leadership experiences. Students gain hands-on, adaptive leadership experience, as well as an understanding of how ethics, citizenship, social justice, community building, and communication skills support effective leadership. This minor is a collaborative effort of the College of Education and Human Development's department of Organizational Leadership, Policy, and Development, the Hubert H. Humphrey School of Public Affairs, and the Office for Student Affairs.

Program Delivery

This program is available:

- via classroom (the majority of instruction is face-to-face)

Admission Requirements

Students must complete 1 courses before admission to the program.

Students must complete the first two courses before declaring the leadership minor on the first day of their field experience.

For information about University of Minnesota admission requirements, visit the Office of Admissions website.
