Division of Humanities

- Program Type: Undergraduate minor related to major
- Requirements for this program are current for Fall 2015
- Required credits in this minor: 26

The music curriculum offers a wide range of courses for the music minor. It also has strong appeal to the general student, especially in the activities of the instrumental and vocal ensembles.

Objectives:
1. Musicianship: Students will demonstrate proficiency in aural and keyboard musicianship.

2. Performance: In their area of specialization students will confidently interpret and perform a wide range of music literature in a public venue.

3. Music in a Historic and Cultural Context: Students will listen to and write about music critically and will be able to apply stylistic principles to the music they perform.

4. Music Theory: Students will have a command of undergraduate music theory concepts, contrapuntal techniques, and musical forms.

Program Delivery

This program is available:

- via classroom (the majority of instruction is face-to-face)
