History Minor

History Department

College of Liberal Arts

- Program Type: Undergraduate minor related to major
- Requirements for this program are current for Fall 2017
- Required credits in this minor: 14

History examines the past, seeking to understand the development and changes in the human experience from its origins to the present. Historians are interested in documenting and interpreting the past from diverse theoretical, ideological, and methodological approaches and at all levels from local history to comparative and global history.

Program Delivery

This program is available:

- via classroom (the majority of instruction is face-to-face)

Minor Requirements

Take a minimum of five history courses. These courses must be in at least two different cultural/geographic areas and taken A-F. Students may count 1xxx-level coursework toward the minor, but at least 14 credits must be at the upper division level (3xxx or higher). Students may earn a BA or a minor in history, but not both.

Minor Courses

Take 5 classes, including at least 14 upper division credits. At least 2 different cultural/geographic areas must be covered in the coursework.
