Sociology of Law, Criminology, and Deviance Minor

Sociology

College of Liberal Arts

- Program Type: Undergraduate minor related to major
- Requirements for this program are current for Fall 2016
- Required credits in this minor: 16 to 17

Sociologists study human social behavior. More specifically, sociology examines how we group ourselves (families, social groups, formal organizations, societies); how we behave in groups (collective action, social change, crime and delinquency); and how characteristics like age, race, social class, and gender affect our relationships with each other and with organizations and institutions.

Program Delivery

This program is available:

- via classroom (the majority of instruction is face-to-face)

Admission Requirements

Students who are interested in this minor are encouraged to schedule a meeting with the departmental advisor to discuss the minor and its requirements.

For more information, visit the sociology website for undergraduates at http://cla.umn.edu/sociology/undergraduate

For information about University of Minnesota admission requirements, visit the Office of Admissions website.

Minor Requirements

Students may earn no more than one undergraduate degree from the Department of Sociology: a BA or BS or minor in sociology; or a BA or BS or minor in sociology of law, criminology, and deviance. At least 8 upper-division credits must be taken at the University of Minnesota, Twin Cities. Transfer students must meet the requirements either through approved coursework completed at their transfer institution or at the University of Minnesota, Twin Cities. No course may count towards more than one minor requirement.
