Integrated Degree Program B.S.

College of Education & Human Development - Adm

College of Education and Human Development

- Program Type: Baccalaureate
- Requirements for this program are current for Spring 2017
- Required credits to graduate with this degree: 120
- Required credits within the major: 60 to 64
- Degree: Bachelor of Science

The College of Education and Human Development's (CEHD) integrated degree program (IDP) is a multidisciplinary major comprised entirely of CEHD content, which allows students to combine preexisting curricular areas in the college. Areas consist of coursework form CEHD minors, certificates and other departmentally-designated grouping of core courses that can be combined to create an integrated course of study within the CEHD that fits the needs and interests of students. The IDP major provides structured interdisciplinary options for students which leads to increased creativity in thinking across disciplinary boundaries. The IDP major is designed for students who are primarily already admitted to CEHD.

Program Delivery

This program is available:

- via classroom (the majority of instruction is face-to-face)

Admission Requirements

Students must complete 30 credits before admission to the program.

Students are considered for admission based on a review of their application. The review includes factors such as GPA, grade trends, performance in coursework relevant to proposed areas of study, and demonstrated ability to meet curricular and developmental expectations of individualized undergraduate education.

Students must develop a degree plan that includes:

Academic and career goals

Courses proposed for the program

Regardless of what minors/certificates/concentration areas students choose to integrate, one course in each of the following areas must be taken:
