Division of Social Sciences

- Program Type: Undergraduate minor related to major
- Requirements for this program are current for Fall 2018
- Required credits in this minor: 26

This discipline offers a multidisciplinary liberal arts-based program that allows students to enter the field of management as a professional or proceed to graduate studies. The management curriculum focuses on areas of human knowledge that concern the operation and control of business and nonprofit organizations. In addition to developing competence in analytical and core business areas, students majoring in the field are expected to learn to critically examine business and other institutions from a liberal arts perspective.

Program Student Learning Outcomes

The curriculum is designed to ensure that students:

1. Understand the economic context for business and organizational decision making.
2. Understand relevant methods and approaches for managing financial, human, and material resources.
3. Understand the nature and functioning of the financial system.
4. Understand the nature of the global business environment.
5. Develop competency in relevant written and oral communication.

Program Delivery

This program is available:

- via classroom (the majority of instruction is face-to-face)
