Twin Cities Campus

Asian Languages and Literatures B.A.

Asian and Middle Eastern Studies

College of Liberal Arts

- Program Type: Baccalaureate
- Requirements for this program are current for Fall 2017
- Required credits to graduate with this degree: 120
- Required credits within the major: 35 to 55
- Degree: Bachelor of Arts

Asia is home to deeply historical world cultures and the fastest growing economies and populations in the world. This major prepares students to interact with the people, cultures, and environments of Asia.

Students in this program will combine study of an Asian language with the study of the cultures, literatures, and media of Asia. Language study provides advanced spoken and written skills that allow students to communicate with people in the region of study. Culture courses range widely and offer students an opportunity to become familiar with the major literary, religious, film and popular cultural movements in various regions in Asia. The majors six sub-plans are based on language of concentration: Arabic, Chinese, Hindi and Urdu, Hmong, Japanese, and Korean. The students concentrated study in upper-level courses culminates in the senior capstone project. Study abroad is strongly encouraged and can contribute credit to the major.

Program Delivery

This program is available:

- via classroom (the majority of instruction is face-to-face)

Admission Requirements

Complete the introductory 4-semester sequence (or its equivalent) of Arabic, Chinese, Hindi/Urdu, Hmong, Japanese, or Korean. Placement testing is required for students who wish to begin with the second semester or higher language courses and have no previous University courses. Study abroad or transfer courses may be approved by the Directors of Language Instruction.

For information about University of Minnesota admission requirements, visit the Office of Admissions website.

General Requirements

All students are required to complete general University and college requirements including writing and liberal education courses. For more information about University-wide requirements, see the liberal education requirements.Required courses for the major or minor in which a student receives a D grade (with or without plus or minus) do not count toward the major or minor (including transfer courses).

Program Requirements

Students are required to take 4 semester(s) of Arabic, or Chinese, or Hindi/Urdu, Hmong, or Japanese, or Korean.

CLA BA degrees require 4 semesters or the equivalent of a second language.

CLA BA degrees require 18 upper-division (3xxx-level or higher) credits outside the major designator. These credits must be taken in designators different from the major designator and cannot include courses that are cross-listed with the major designator. The major designator for the Asian Languages and Literatures BA is ALL.

A minimum of 35 credits are required for the major. Students with advanced or native language ability may substitute ALL 3xxx-5xxx literature/culture courses in lieu of the major language requirement; see departmental advisor for final consent. All major coursework must be taken A-F and completed with a C- or better. At least 18 of the total 35 credits required for the major must be completed in residence at the University of Minnesota - Twin Cities campus.

Students may earn a BA or a minor in Asian languages and literatures, but not both.

All incoming CLA freshmen must complete the First Year Experience course sequence.

Reading Asian Cultures

Note: ALL 3001 is offered in the Fall only.
