Philosophy Minor

Division of Humanities - Adm

Division of Humanities

- Program Type: Undergraduate minor related to major
- Requirements for this program are current for Fall 2017
- Required credits in this minor: 24
- This program requires summer terms.

The philosophy program provides an environment in which students receive rich, well-rounded instruction in philosophy, essential to a liberal arts education.

Program Student Learning Outcomes:
UMM's philosophy curriculum offers coursework in all major subfields of philosophy: the history of philosophy, metaphysics and logic, epistemology, and values. As a field of study, philosophy is at the core of a liberal arts education, as its skills encourage independent thought and interdisciplinary, integrated inquiry. Specifically, UMM's philosophy program offers students the opportunity to:

Explore philosophy's fundamental questions and proposed answers;
Cultivate their own philosophical powers, which include creativity, sensitivity, intellectual courage, open-mindedness and critical-mindedness, logical rigor, and analytical precision;
Join the great conversation by contributing their own considered insights;
Hone their ability to speak and write effectively.

Program Delivery

This program is available:

- via classroom (the majority of instruction is face-to-face)
