Management Minor

Management Studies

Labovitz School of Business and Economics

- Program Type: Undergraduate minor related to major
- Requirements for this program are current for Fall 2019
- Required credits in this minor: 12 to 30

Managers facilitate the work of others to accomplish goals that might not be achieved by a single individual and need to know about the environment surrounding the organization, the roles that managers can play, and the techniques that effectively guide employees. The curriculum allows students to become familiar with different types of organization and their members. Students learn the administrative and fundamental skills demanded of leaders in today's public and private organizations. Among the many topics covered are organizational environment, groups and teams at work, leadership, and employee empowerment. Student are given the opportunity to learn more about organisations' complex systems.
