The retail merchandising program offers a wide range of educational and career opportunities, including visits to multinational retail enterprises, travel to foreign and domestic retail centers, and professional experiences, such as study abroad, and internships with national and international retailers. Program graduates begin their careers in store or corporate environments. Entry-level positions include omni-channel retailing management, visual merchandising, fashion marketing, product development and brand management, sourcing and supply chain management, retail analytics and customer relationship management, store and human capital management, retail buying, advertising and sales promotion.

Program Delivery

This program is available:

- via classroom (the majority of instruction is face-to-face)

Admission Requirements

Admission is competitive and space is limited.

For information about University of Minnesota admission requirements, visit the Office of Admissions website.

General Requirements

All students are required to complete general University and college requirements including writing and liberal education courses. For more information about University-wide requirements, see the liberal education requirements. Required courses for the major or minor in which a student receives a D grade (with or without plus or minus) do not count toward the major or minor (including transfer courses).
