Mass Communication B.A.

School of Journalism & Mass Communication

College of Liberal Arts

- Program Type: Baccalaureate
- Requirements for this program are current for Fall 2019
- Required credits to graduate with this degree: 120
- Required credits within the major: 37 to 38
- Degree: Bachelor of Arts

Mass communication is the study of communicating with the masses, but is also about media storytelling with strategy and purpose. The study of mass communication is centered around how messages persuade and affect the behavior and opinion of the person or people receiving the content. This major is designed for students who wish to pursue a liberal arts approach to the study of mass communication institutions, processes, effects, research methods, and analysis through the lens of economic sociology, politics, psychology, law and other disciplines. The major helps students develop research methods and analysis skills that can be applied to a number of different fields, including law, academia, and the professional sector. Students can choose a program emphasis in areas such as history, law, media effects, media industry studies, international communications, or other aspects of the mass communication field.

About two-thirds of the coursework for the BA degree is outside of JOUR. The 120-credit requirement must include at least 72 non-JOUR credits. Total program credits may not exceed 48.

Program Delivery

This program is available:

- via classroom (the majority of instruction is face-to-face)

Admission Requirements

Freshman and transfer students are usually admitted to pre-major status before admission to this major

A GPA above 2.0 is preferred for the following:

- 3.00 already admitted to the degree-granting college
- 3.00 transferring from another University of Minnesota college
- 3.00 transferring from outside the University

Students must apply to the major.
